

Small Town Atmosphere

Group 1:

Atmosphere is characterized by dense/ low scale development, incorporating local design features and being a hub of community activity with a concentration of population density supporting a core of institutional and retail activity and utilizing greenspace to join adjacent villages.

Group 2:

A community with low profile structures, quiet and safe lifestyle, people friendly, with mature vegetation, small scale neighborhoods and a mini commerce center.